Chris,
As a follow up to the voicemail I left you last week regarding the January 15 call between Congressman Schrader and EPA Assistant Administrator Mathy Stanislaus, Mr. Stanislaus committed to look into issue the Congressman raised regarding the dispute resolution process. That the LWG has decided to avail themselves of the dispute process under the AOC, indicates that the LWG did have options regarding dispute resolution. Given the current stage of the process, the agency needs to accommodate that process and not discuss matters under dispute with outside parties. We will certainly keep you informed as much as possible. Our regional office will also be coordinating another update conference call for delegation staff in the next few weeks.

In the meantime, please let me know if you have any questions.

Thanks,
Carolyn
